

- A Steamboat Era Museum reimagined as both a community center and museum with public restrooms, art makers space, and meeting areas.
- B Expanded bandstand and stage
- C Performance area shade arbor and grove
- D Trolley stop, bench, and bike racks
- E Holiday tree
- F Enhanced Commons Sign
- G Community Artwork
- H Commons entrance featuring iconic white fences and food truck area
- I Public sidewalks and streetscape
- J Pickleball court and bike racks
- K Native plantings throughout
- L Shade sails at the tennis court
- M Crosswalk and commons entrance featuring iconic white fences
- N Commons event parking area vehicular entrance
- O TriWays Trail parking, kiosk, and bike repair area
- P Continuous perimeter trail with exercise stations and historic interpretation signs
- Q Pollinator meadows
- R Bioswales infiltrate stormwater to mitigate pollutants running to Carter's Creek
- S Farmers Market and maintenance vehicular entrance flanked by white fences
- T Parents patio and shade arbor overlooking the playground
- U Storage shed
- V Flagpole and memorial garden

