

TOWN CODE OF CONDUCT
Irvington, Virginia

The Town Council adopted the attached Code of Conduct at its meeting on 06/13/24. The Code addresses how members will conduct themselves in an ethical manner.

The Code of Conduct is adopted for execution by each elected or appointed member of a Town public body, including the Mayor and Town Council Members, the Planning Commission, Board of Zoning Appeals and Architectural Review Board.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Preamble

The citizens of Town of Irvington, Virginia, are entitled to have fair, ethical and accountable local government, which has earned the public's full confidence for integrity. Public officials, both elected, appointed and staff, must comply with the letter and spirit of the laws and policies affecting the operations of government. Public officials must be independent, impartial and fair in their judgment and actions. The public office is used for the public good, not for personal gain; and that public deliberations and processes must be conducted openly, unless legally confidential, in an atmosphere of respect and civility.

1. Act in the Public Interest

Members of Council will work for the common good of the residents of Irvington and not for any private or personal interest, and they will ensure fair and equal treatment-of all persons, matters and transactions coming before them.

2. Comply with the Law

Members of Council will comply as applicable with the laws of the nation, the Commonwealth of Virginia, and the Town of Irvington, as well as the procedures and rules adopted by the Town Council in the performance of their public duties. Members of Council must timely report to the Mayor any violation of law that results with them being charged with a misdemeanor or felony.

3. Conduct of Members

The professional and personal conduct of members must be above reproach and avoid even the appearance of impropriety. Members shall refrain from abusive conduct, profane language, personal charges or verbal attacks upon the character or motives of other members of the Town Council, commissions, and committees, the staff or public.

4. Respect for Process

Members shall perform their duties in accordance with the processes and rules of order established by the Town Council.

5. Conduct of Public Meetings

Members shall prepare themselves for public issues; listen courteously and attentively to all public discussions before the body; and focus on the business at hand. They shall refrain from interrupting other speakers; making personal comments not germane to the business of the body; or otherwise interfering with the orderly conduct of meetings.

6. Decisions Based on Merit

Members shall base their decisions on the merits and substance of the matter at hand, rather than on unrelated considerations.

7. Communication

Members shall publicly share substantive information that is relevant to a matter under consideration by the Town Council or committees and commissions, which they may have received from sources outside of the public decision-making process.

8. Conflict of Interest

Members shall comply with Virginia State and Local Government Conflicts Act, as to any conflicts, gifts and favors.

9. Confidential Information

Members shall respect the confidentiality of information concerning the property, personnel or affairs of the Town. They shall neither disclose confidential information without proper legal authorization, nor use such information to advance their personal, financial or other private interests.

10. Use of Public Resources

Members shall not use public resources such as Town staff time, equipment, supplies, property or facilities, for private gain or personal purposes.

11. Representation of Private Interests

In keeping with their role as stewards of the public interest, members of the Council shall not appear on behalf of the private interests of third parties before the Town Council or any committee, commission or proceeding of the Town, nor shall members of committees or commissions appear before their own bodies or before the Town Council on behalf of the private interests of third parties on matters related to the areas of service of their bodies.

12. Advocacy

Members shall represent the official policies or positions of the Town Council, boards, commissions or committees to the best of their ability when designated as delegates for this purpose. When presenting their individual opinions and positions, members shall explicitly state they do not represent their body or the Town of Irvington, nor will they allow the inference that they do.

13. Policy Role of Members

The Town Council determines the policies of the Town with the advice, information and analysis provided by the public, commissions, committees, and Town staff.

Members shall not interfere with the administrative functions of the Town or the professional duties of Town staff; nor shall they impair the ability of staff to implement Council policy decisions.

14. Independence of Board and Commissions

Because of the value of the independent advice of boards, committees and commissions to the public decision-making process, members of the Town Council shall refrain from using their positions to unduly influence the deliberations or outcomes of committee or commission proceedings.

15. Positive Workplace Environment

Members shall support the maintenance of a positive and constructive workplace environment for Town employees and for citizens and businesses dealing with the Town. Members shall recognize their special role in dealings with Town employees and in no way create the perception of inappropriate direction to staff.

(a) Treat all staff as professionals. Members of Council will use their best efforts to engage in clear, honest communication that respects the abilities, experience, and dignity of each individual staff member.

(b) Do not disrupt Town staff from their jobs. Members of Council should not disrupt Town staff while they are in meetings, on the phone, or performing their job.

(c) Never publicly criticize an individual employee. Members of Council should never express concerns about the performance of a Town employee in public, to the employee directly. Comments about staff performance should only be made to the Mayor or Human Resource Committee through private correspondence or conversation.

(d) Do not get involved in administrative functions. Members of Council acting in their individual capacity will not attempt to influence Town staff in the course of performing their official duties.

(e) Do not solicit political support from staff. Members of Council will not solicit any type of political support from Town staff nor require political support of appointees to boards or commissions. Staff and appointees may, as private citizens with constitutional rights, support political candidates but all such activities must be done away from the workplace.

(f) No Attorney-Client Relationship. Members of Council shall not seek to establish an attorney-client relationship with the Town Attorney, including his or her staff and attorneys contracted to work on behalf of the Town. The Town Attorney represents the Town and not individual members.

16. Implementation

As an expression of the standards of conduct for members expected by the Town, the Town of Irvington Code of Conduct is intended to be self-enforcing. It therefore becomes most effective when members are thoroughly familiar with it and embrace its provisions.

For this reason, ethical standards shall be included in the regular orientations for candidates for the Town Council, applicants to boards, committees and commissions, and newly elected and appointed officials. Members entering office shall sign a statement affirming they have read and understood the Town of Irvington Code of Conduct. In addition, the Town Council, committees and commissions, shall annually review the Code of Conduct and the Town Council shall consider recommendations from committees and commissions to update it as necessary.

17. Compliance and Enforcement

The Town of Irvington Code of Conduct expresses standards of ethical conduct expected of members of the Town Council, committees and commissions. Members themselves have the primary responsibility to ensure that ethical standards are understood and met, and that the public can continue to have full confidence in the integrity of government.

The chairs of committees and commissions and the Mayor have the additional responsibility to intervene when actions of members that appear to be in violation of the Code of Conduct are brought to their attention.

The Town Council may impose sanctions on members whose conduct does not comply with the Town's ethical standards, such as reprimand, formal censure, loss of seniority or committee assignment. Where allowed by law, the Town Council also may remove members of Town-appointed committees and commissions from office.

A violation of this Code of Conduct shall not be considered a basis for challenging the validity of a Town Council, board, and committee or commission decision.

RESOLUTION

A RESOLUTION TO ADOPT CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE IRVINGTON TOWN COUNCIL AND FOR THE MEMBERS OF ALL COMMITTEES AND COMMISSIONS APPOINTED BY THE TOWN COUNCIL

WHEREAS, the Town Council has determined that the adoption of a Mission and Code of Conduct for its members and the members of all Council-appointed committees and commissions will assist in achieving these ends; and

WHEREAS, the citizens and businesses of the Town of Irvington are entitled to have fair, ethical and accountable local government which has earned the public's full confidence; and

WHEREAS, in keeping with Town Council's commitment to excellence, all public officials, both elected and appointed, must comply with both the letter and spirit of the laws and policies affecting the operation of government; and

WHEREAS, all public officials, both elected and appointed, are required to be impartial and fair in their judgment and actions and ensure that public office is used for the public good; and; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Town Council 06/13/2024, that the following Code of Conduct is hereby adopted.
