MINUTES OF THE COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF IRVINGTON
AS OF APRIL 11, 1985

PRESENT::

MAYOR:	William B. Sanders
COUNCILMEN:	Jayne Jackson	Robert Barrack
	Douglas Hundley	Ray Reynolds
	J. W. Gunther, Jr.	Jimmy Robertson
ATTORNEY:	Leslie Kilduff, Jr.
TOWN POLICE:	Barron Dawson

Mayor Sanders called meeting to order.

Clerk read minutes of the March meeting. After some discussion a motion was made by Robert Barrack second by Douglas Hundley to accept minutes as read, unanimously approved.

Treasurers report was discussed, motion made by Jayne Jackson, second by Ray Reynolds to accept report as presented, unanimously approved.

OLD BUSINESS:

Mr. Nicholson presented a letter <sup>to</sup> ~~the~~ the council concerning a permit for Bed & Breakfast at Kendall Hall in Irvington. Mr. Nicholson expressed that he had no idea of expanding and turning the property into a restaurant. He also, said he would return permit to the town if he left the area. He said his desire was to facilitate his retirement and achieve favorable tax status during his retirement. Mr. Nicholson originally applied for a zoning change, this was denied. He is now applying for a conditional use permit under section 2-1-16 page 3 of zoning book (Home occupation). Considerable discussion was held comparing "Tourist Home" found on page 6 and "Home Occupation" found on page 3.

Mayor Sanders expressed his desire to allow Mr. Nicholson the necessary permit. Mr. Kilduff indicated his research did classify Mr. Nicholson's endeavor as "Home Occupation", based on statute definition. Mr. Nicholson was asked to get a letter of approval from the neighbors and present to council at the May meeting. Motion was tabled until the May meeting at which time letter and conditions of Conditional Use Permit will be presented to Planning Commission.

Jimmy Robertson was welcomed as a new member on the Irvington Town Council he is replacing Joseph McCarty who resigned to move out of state.

NEW BUSINESS:

A motion was made by Jayne Jackson, second by Bob Barrack to appoint Douglas Hundley as Vice Mayor, unanimously approved.

It was brought to the attention of the Council that Dr. Reid needed to be replaced on the Board of Zoning Appeals as he is no longer an active member.

✓ Buddy Gunther made motion, second by Bob Barrack to ask William Graham if he would serve. This will be taken care of by Mayor Sanders.

✓ A letter was read from Patricia Dillingham, owner of King Carter Inn, asking if something could be done to control the noise and traffic at the basketball court. Town Police Barron Dawson reported that he had taken care of the problem.

Page 2
Town of Irvington Council minutes
April 11, 1985

Jayne Jackson asked if the trash at the playground could be cleaned up and bushes trimmed. She was given permission to take care of this.

✓ The property of the Old Gift Shop in Irvington, belonging to Mrs. Carrie Brownley was discussed. A letter will be sent to her asking if she would have it cleared of weeds.

There being no further business meeting adjourned.

MINUTES OF THE REGULAR MEETING OF THE
IRVINGTON TOWN COUNCIL HELD MARCH 14, 1985

PRESENT

MAYOR	William B. Sanders
COUNCILMEN:	Robert Barrack	Ray Reynolds
	J. W. Gunther, Jr.	Douglas Hundley
TOWN ATTORNEY	Leslie Kilduff, Jr.

Mayor Sanders called meeting to order, Clerk read the minutes of February meeting. After some discussion a motion was made by Ray Reynolds, second by Buddy Gunther to accept minutes as read, unanimously accepted.

Treasurers report was discussed, motion made by Douglas Hundley, second by Bob Barrack to accept report as presented.

OLD BUSINESS:

Nothing as been heard from Schaefer Oglesby concerning permit to open a restaurant at formerly Crockett Seafood property.

XChristmas lights were discussed, no action was taken at this time.

A letter from Sydnor was mentioned, the town is not interested in their proposal at this time.

A replacement for Joseph McCarty on the Irvington Town Council was discussed. Motion made by Ray Reynolds second by Douglas Hundley to ask Jimmie Robertson if he would serve on Council to fill unexpired term of Joe McCarty.

Attorney Leslie Kilduff, Jr. brought to the council some forms of taxation that could supplement the town income in case revenue sharing and other means of income would no longer be in existence. Mr. Kilduff presented several means of income as sighted by a publication Mayor Sanders had provided him with. No action was taken concerning additional sources of income other than discussion. Mr. Kilduff also read an article on the governing bodies of the town and how they can be protected against any form of suit, a copy of the statute attached is a part of the minutes.

NEW BUSINESS:

The water situation on the property of Frank McGinnes was discussed with Mr. Kilduff, questions were centered around the zoning character of the McGinnes property if water was sold to lot owners from a system Mr. McGinnes owned. Mr. Kilduff felt no problem with zoning, but would research it and report back to council. The zoning book indicated no problem with the McGinnes proposal, but Leslie would verify this at the April '85 meeting. McGinnes application was approved by Planning Commission.

The request for a Bed and Breakfast facility at Kendall Hall was not permitted by Planning Commission.

Mayor Sanders read a letter from Jeff Schmidt stating that there was speeding on route 354, Tides Inn road. Mr. Rhoads from the highway department was contacted, he replied back that the speed limit signs were 35 miles per hr.

There being no further business meeting adjourned.

COUNCILMEN:	Robert Barrack	Douglas Hundley
	J. W. Gunther, Jr.	Ray Reynolds
TOWN POLICE	Barron Dawson

Mayor Sanders called the meeting to order.

Minutes were approved as read

Treasurers report accepted as presented.

OLD BUSINESS:

A discussion was held concerning price of Comprehensive Plan, Zoning and Subdivision books, J. W. Gunther, Jr. made motion, second by Douglas Hundley to sell the copies in a package at $15.00 for the three. This was unanimously approved.

Mayor Sanders reported that he had talked with Sydnor concerning water problem. A discussion was held with councilmen. Mayor Sanders will pursue this matter further.

Mayor Sanders reported that he had talked with Cruger Ragland, Insurance Agent about insurance for town police car and it was decided to stay with Treakle Insurance Agency as there would be very little difference in premium.

Mayor Sanders reported on route changes. A letter was read from Mr. Rhodes stating that maintenance standard and snow removal would not be changed. Mayor Sanders composed a resolution and asked the Council if they would accept it before he sends it to Mr. Rhodes. Resolution reads as follows: "Be it resolved that the Town of Irvington supports the proposed renumbering of Route 3 and 200 in Lancaster County providing the newly created route 200 running thru Irvington is maintained according to State Highway Standards in the future."

Prior to adopting this the Tides Inn was mentioned.

Motion by J. W. Gunther, Jr. and second by Robert Barrack to accept this resolution, unanimously approved.

Mr. Foxwells problem was discussed. Planning commission will act on this.
