Charles Dyson
Clerk of Irvington

This is in reference to the "interim appointment position" for the Town Council that was recently vacated by Fredrick Johnson. I am interested in filling this vacancy and would like to have my name moved forward as an applicant.

My name is David Cheek and I live at 226 Old Mill Cove Road in Irvington. I have been a resident of the town ever since 1985 when my wife & I built our home here. I became interested in our town's government shortly afterwards.

I first joined the Planning Commission, then the Town Council & later became a two term Mayor of Irvington in the early 1990's.

It was during this time period Irvington's local government saw a major transition forward, to a more modern governing body. During my tenure as Mayor, the first Zoning Administrator was hired, along with the first full time Town Clerk,. The town's zoning ordinances were modernized and rewritten to include the first Chesapeake Bay Regulations which were required at that time.

From the time I stepped down as Mayor, I have followed Irvington's growth, moving from a small residential community to where it stands today. I have attended many Council meetings over the years and presently I serve on the Board of Zoning Appeals.

I look forward to serving the residents of Irvington again as a Council Member.

Your consideration of my request is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
David Cheek
